

The Migration Company and Megaport partner to deliver the fastest and easiest migrations in the market.

Upholding the promise of swift, secure and simple, The Migration Company (TMC) continues to keep customers ahead of the curve through their new partnership with Megaport, a leading global Network as a Service (NaaS) provider.

This partnership will deliver the swiftest and simplest migrations yet utilising Megaport's easy, fast and flexible connectivity and leveraging TMC's existing migration jump spots and migration factories. TMC's migration speeds will continue to deliver results 40% faster than anyone else in the market, with the added flexibility and scale of Megaport's Software Defined Network (SDN). The combined ecosystem connects customers to over 300 service providers including flexible, direct connections to leading cloud services like Amazon Web Services, Microsoft Azure and Google Cloud.

Continually adopting the most innovative practices with a focus on ease and simplicity, TMC and Megaport provide best-of-breed capabilities in data and application migration and data networking to support the rapid adoption of cloud-based IT solutions. This enables customers to scale with high performance and align their cloud and network usage to their business needs.

"The Migration Company's partnership with Megaport increases our time to value for our customers and continues to strengthen our 40% faster migration service offering. Connecting our customers' data centres to the cloud is now a 60 second process which represents efficiency in cloud connectivity lead times, cost savings and reduction in overall migration timelines" said Roux Visser, Managing Director of TMC.

"We are delighted to combine the power and flexibility of Megaport's SDN with TMC's leading migration services," said Josh Munro, Executive Vice President, Asia Pacific, of Megaport. "As enterprises are adopting multi-cloud and hybrid cloud architectures, connectivity plays a critical role in ensuring security, scalability and performance for cloud-based applications."

The partnership will enable TMC and Megaport to offer agility and flexibility to their customers, to deliver efficient digital transformations.
